Lawrence R. Houston, Esq.
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Larry:

25X1X6

Here is a letter I have received from [REDACTED]. He claims to have some very active groups abroad, but I refused to let him give me the details of it. I told him that these things should be disclosed to you and that you could take it up with your colleagues in the organization.

I have written him telling him that I have forwarded this letter to you and also told him that if he presented to you my letter to him I thought you would be willing to see him. I am addressing him at his private address, [REDACTED], which you might use if you find it convenient.
